Well done to NALA Agility Winners - Karen de Wit & Tana

By Fiona Ferrar

It is awesome to see Karen and Tana take out the top award for NALA after so many years of supporting the organisation. Moss was a top contender a few years ago, but never quite managed the elusive first.

I joined NALA in 1993, and at that stage Karen and Ian Gray had been running the organisation for a few years. I seem to remember our 10 year anniversary was in 1999, so that means Karen has been writing editorials and co-ordinating the publication of the magazine for nearly 20 years! That is some dedication, and I'm sure that there are lot more folk out there who really appreciate your efforts Karen.

I took over from Ian Gray as Treasurer over 10 years ago. In those days, membership was not as large, and Ian recorded all the receipts manually in a book. The results were done on a system developed by Peter de Wit, and administered by Ian Barclay. Karen also used to send out all the magazines at that stage. I started recording membership on a spreadsheet, and used to send floppy disks each month to Ian and Karen so they knew what results should count, and who to send magazines to. We have come a long way since then with the NALA web-site for membership and results with development co-ordinated and now maintained by Mike Butler.

So enough reminiscing about the old times. Congratulations again Karen, I hope it isn't going to take you another 20 years to repeat the effort! And for anyone that has the opportunity to see the historic Zone 3 NALA awards, keep your eyes out for the flashiest ribbon that Karen can find – she truly deserves it!

EDITORIAL

...on the Competitions documents....

It has been an interesting time, reading through all the submissions, a terrific number of responses at nearly 250.

You are all pretty much as keen and fervent about the sport as I am which is great, and there are so many different ideas out there it is amazing! I must admit some people got a bit negative, but the majority of people took the opportunity to think about the sport and to respond to all the suggestions with thoughtful comments.

I am pretty tuckered out at present having spent two days off work analyzing returns, plus two days with the rest of the committee going over it all and trying to decide what goes through to the next stage.

It is an exciting time for agility and I hope some new things will come through, which will further enhance our sport and encourage more people to participate and have fun for longer as well as achieve their goals.

Please feel free to continue to share with me your comments on any agility topic. I cannot get all round NZ but really want to keep up with what is going on as much as possible.

...on the YKC/NALA partnership

I am really pleased to announce a new competition for the junior handlers out there nationwide. Not only do they get to run dogs at special classes at agility competitions, they now get to join all their club members at Link at their Club on a monthly basis with the inaugural YKC Agility Link competition. Read more about it on Page 15.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING NOTICES.

~ NALA REPORTS ~

Top 'Arf report – by Ann Kenny

So that was March, a very busy month albeit with the odd bit of emigration to some strange southern field.

The first zone outing was to Akarana, a delightful little club with tiny grounds hidden away in the corner of a park. On the way down you could have made the mistake of assuming it was going to be a very popular show with the police attempting to close the main road just as I was getting there. Turned out to be some little cultural bash called Pasifica which was just round the corner. Hey at least it will give the neighbours something to complain about other than barking dogs.

The following day was a trip slightly closer to home at Mangawhai another super little club having its second show but performing admirably. Amazing grounds you couldn't design better for agility if you tried. Any stories you may have heard about drunken antics from Counties ladies at the camp ground the night before were greatly exaggerated (fritters excepted) The grounds particularly appealed to our little monster Hudson who deigned to not only provide one of those ever so rare clear rounds but also managed a third place. Excellent opportunity for some of the northern newbies to get out for a run.

Counties – DRY !!!! Yes we have all heard about the counties mud bath but that is their other event, this one makes for wonderful camping particularly if you are fond of trains and an early riser. Highlight was definitely Michelle Burgeraaf's Ali winning senior to get her Grand Champ and yes the evil harpies from her club did ensure a serious drenching for the poor girl. With the heat of the day there were probably a few more who were wishing that they had been made up. Now some might say she was greedy, but running off with $200 from Dash for Cash to finish the weekend was certainly the icing on the cake.

On a more serious note a stern warning to all dog owners beware of letting someone else run your dog. Sheeran Johnstone's Laddie is a world famous hoon dog who takes a bit of keeping up with. Feeling the heat of the day and a little tired Sheeran asked her grand daughter Hayley if she could run Laddie round the novice course Hayley duly obliged as did Laddie pulling off a real screamer, clear, resulting in a comfortable win. Well done Hayley!

The other prize winner in Dash For Cash was Whangarei's own Rebecca Roper (OK we do borrow her from Bay of Islands) who not only had the highest placing starter but also got Zito into the final round to collect $100.00. I put it down to having practiced with my old black girl Zilke who she also ran throughout the competition and managed the old girl's first clear round in a senior level event.

The Manukau & ACAC weekend was another cool coat event with the odd cloud interspersed with some pretty warm spells. The back block at Ardmore is certainly greening up well with the planting on the bund wall gradually obscuring the unsightly neighbour.

Not sure about some of the other tree planting in what was often a parking area however the dogs didn't seem to mind their new conveniences. For what was possibly the first time we had a line up with Chelsea Marriner taking four places in open jumpers and enlisting Alix (mum) to fill the lower slots. Really starting to believe that she should compete against people her own age, it's just not fair on the adults!

The show also offered the award of the annual Zone trophies. Sure these will be reported fully elsewhere but you don't have to be a genius at math's to figure out Allan & Elaine Rhodes's contribution to an outstanding success for Counties in the Club section. Not forgetting Marie Wales & MJ for winning the midi dog trophy.

That's it for Zone 1 shows for March. It's off to Rotorua next weekend followed by an inaugural trip(le) to EBOP

Central Report—by Melanie Held

Mt. Maunganui & Tauranga Joint Champ Show 15th & 16th March

Once again this joint team laid on a super show and ordered the good weather to go with it. Both days had a chilly start (in fact bloody chilly at 6.30 in the morning – God knows why I got there at that time, but I did). The sun gradually came out to warm the old bones to go with the old coffee.

My day had a shitty start, I had set up my good old “Lygo” Oz Tent the night before and then got showered with dew when I shook out the awning which unfortunately was witnessed by the Tauponarians who thought it was a huge joke. Then my chair broke (thanks to Nigel K who sort of fixed it and more thanks to the mainlanders who left me two spares in the cleaning cupboard of the Lodge after CHB last October). Then I ran totally the wrong way in the first intermediate (much to Rogers amusement) and totally lost the plot. Not a good start to Saturday!!!! Anyway, enough of my dillydallying, at least there were no bloomers hanging around.

Good to see Ross (alias Kenneth) McBeth back on the circuit with one new hip and one new pup named Count (hope he dosen't mispronounce the name one day!)

As usual four rings were set up (aren't they lucky to have the space for that) which made for smooth changeovers and running. I did notice that one had to keep a keen eye on what was going on, because I didn't hear any announcement that a course was walking on the opposite side of the field. OK so they had a microphone that couldn't be heard, but on the other hand it could have been made clear that a certain course could be walked! Was a bonus to have three jumpers courses on Saturday, Starters, Novice/Intermediate and a Senior to boot.

A couple of competitors that I don't know did very well, Petra Parkinson from EBOP won Starters 1A with Bode and Gail Francis from Tauranga won Starters 2 with Quinton. And young Deb Middlemiss was over the moon to win Novice 1B with Riddles, what a cracker little dog that is.

Sunday was another hot day and Tim put up a very challenging intermediate course.

I quite enjoyed it and once Billie got her act together she worked well, at least better than yesterday.

Now Brett Palmer's Senior course caused a lot of angst and it was one of the trickiest ones I have ever seen, but he is renowned for tricky senior courses. The lovely Michelle and Ali were the first to go clear and she really needed that win for Grand. She lost out by 2 seconds by Quest. Shame because it would have been fitting for her to get her soaking at this show. But the following weekend at Counties she achieved that final win for her Grand Title so well done to this great team, it is always a pleasure to watch Michelle and Ali, they are both so focussed and together (if you know what I mean) and me for one, am really thrilled for her. Well done Michelle – you have worked so hard and your achievement is admirable.

Chelsea had a great weekend and out of the 10 intermediate/senior classes available, she won 9 of them (as well as winning 2 novices), with each of her 4 dogs having at least 1 win. Ike had 3 (2 of which were Novice), Flash 2, Breeze 3, and Quest 3 which once again, meant that Chelsea took out Top Dog with Breeze. (Won't it be great when she gets into boys!!) Top Starter Dog was Steve Chester with Shay.

So well done to all place-getters and many thanks to both clubs for yet another super hot show.

Now I also understand that the lovely Beth Oliver got her final clear round at Wanganui to achieve AgCh status with V and she really must be congratulated for this great result. We in the Hawkes Bay, are very proud of you Beth – I think you must be our first AgCh (that I know of).

Well guys, this is my last report for NALA, my poor brain is tired so I am handing over to Mel Mankelow from EBOP, who I am sure will serve you all well. I have so enjoyed being the Zone 2 rep for the last two years but it's time for some new blood, and new views and reports. I will naturally be seeing all my agility buddies at shows around the north island and look forward to catching up with the mainlanders at CHB and the NDTA, especially next year when we will mosey on down in the Wendy House for a couple of weeks – so please start now to clear away all those trees that the Wendy House loves so much.

One last thing I would like to mention to those who stay in motels, there is a new website out there advertising accommodation that accept dogs. Check out www.dogsontherun.co.nz Happy travelling and go well everyone. Bye for now.

EDITOR: Thankyou to Melanie for her reports this year, they have been great, full of lots of news and information on the local goings-ones. We look forward to reading reports from Mel.

Lower North Report—by Helen Carter

Hi this is my last report as I am taking a break. I have enjoyed doing this job and hope the next person to do it will enjoy getting to know nee people as much as I have.

Hawera Champ Show 1st 2nd March

Well done to Hawera for a great show. Was a lot of fun and was finished by lunchtime on Sunday. The Discussion document seems to have generated a lot of chat around the park. There was some rain on Saturday but as this was at the prize giving, which was inside, this did not diminish the fun. The judges were great and relaxed helping the show to flow well. I did like the post saying it was the 'little club that could'. A great advert for those 'little clubs' Dianne Reid and India had another great weekend with 4 wins and good to see Wendy Osmond and Lady continuing with their first win in Novice, they will be in Senior before they know it.

South Rangatiki Ribbon Trial 21st March

An extra ribbon this weekend trial thanks to it being Easter. There was great weather and a great atmosphere. Good to see some of the young dogs coming along and doing well.

Wanganui Champ Show 22nd 23rd March

This was an awesome weekend and an extremely well run show. The great weather theme continues. The courses were nice to run with some subtle challenges and its nice to see more people making their dogs up, whether to the next level or to Champ etc, this is the best results of all that hard work. Sad to see some injuries to dogs and people but I guess this is what happens in an active sport, hope all of the sore ones are feeling better and will all be back in action soon.

Hurricannines Flygility 29th March

This was a great day with patchy weather and it produced some good results with young dogs coming along well and we even had a new FD dog today with Rebecca Sidwell and Misty getting that elusive last point.

Kapiti Ribbon Trial 30th March

The weather again was patchy today but these grounds are great. The results show some different dogs coming to the fore. With only one dog getting around in Senior well done to Penny and Ashley. It seems like it was a small gathering. Lots of fun was had by those who did go.

EDITOR: Thank you very much to Helen for her great reports which she continued doing even after she did not have a dog to run, and stopped attending events much of the time. We wish her luck with her young dog's training and look forward to seeing them both later on at agility events.

NDTA2008 Benefit Agility Championship Show

There will be a competition at Wanganui DOC, Otamatea Reserve, Wanganui on Saturday 24 & Sunday 25 May to raise money for the NDTA in Feilding this year. A full weekend of agility events is being held, with something for everyone. Come along and give the NDTA Games rules a go— we will run an Interclub relay, Jumpers Pairs and Gamblers. Mainland Report - by PATRICK. D. DOGG

March (and Marching girls). Unlike debruary march has been such a busy month, to report everything in detail would be onerous so here are the headlines

Waimak ribbon trial was a wet affair obviously keeping the rest of Canterbury away although the turn out of Waimak members ensured that the event was successful. Also created was a "Brian" this is apparently the name that has been allocated to a grumpy person who stands forlornly in the rain all day picking up hurdle poles while others stand under cover nice and dry.

Sunny Nelson? Only if you count liquid sunshine ! The Nelson show would have put a smile on any good central north island farmer's face. Warm and wet, seems this was just the combination that mini poodle owner extradonaire Jane Norton, needed to make the podium her own.

Investigations are under way for the ingredients of hair gel; it appears that import David E, intent on grooming his rugged good looks stopped off for a style hair cut on the way to the 50th Anniversary CCOC show. He duly arrived looking very sophisticated with his new "DO" and promptly got lost on the first course, not a major I hear you say, but then he walked into a tree! Now David has been known to get lost on a course from time to time and the hair gel is looking like the culprit.

The collection of discussion documents by the agility committee has caused many ripples of discontent in the South Island. Rumour around the clubs and bars after the lynch mobs have finished are ones of breakaway groups and rebellion, so watch this space for latest.

On a lighter note however mini dog's handlers are ecstatic, calculating they could achieve Agility Grand Champion in a little less than twelve months. They are instigating a discussion document to change all clear round certificates to A4 landscape. This is to ensure they can get the full kennel name and the titles that they will undoubtedly earn in quick succession due to the low numbers of competitors.

Jane Rickably the newest top dog competitor at the 50th Anniversary CCOC show and a mini handler had a training / fashion tip to share with one of Pats intrepid reporters, and great tips should be shared but to help keep Pat competitive this one will be kept a secret for now anyway.

CCATS show was another triumph for Jane and those flying mini poodles and although the weather over Easter weekend was fine it certainly wasn't dry for Teresa Ford who made Lace up to Champ.

Mikey B turned up at the CCATS show almost straight from a hernia surgery looking for a brave soul to run Macca, not that Macca is a vicious dog it's the owner you need to be careful of. Vanessa T not scared of Mikey at the best of times showed her class as a handler and with the words of "you have to run to win" ringing in her ears she quickly piloted Macca around to a first place.

50 seems to be a magic number this month as it was Timaru's 50th anniversary as well. So there was a bit of nostalgia in the air over the weekend with the club trotting out some of the founding members of the club who still looked like they would still have a crack at a couple of courses. Seems the Tansey's also had reason to join in the nostalgic revelry' its not often you see an agility judge in suit and tie or flowing skirt, and I'll let you all figure out whom was wearing which. Timaru was the Tansey's first judging appointment many years ago and Steve had felt on that occasion that a Tuxedo was the dress code of the day in line with the importance of the occasion.

Now for the food section you will need 6 eggs a bag of self raising flour, flavoured fizzy drink, and water, lots and lots of water. Firstly break the eggs, tip the flour over the eggs, add the fizzy drink and flush with lots and lots of water. Add Anne Bevin and Pete and you end up with a new Grand Agility Champion well done Anne.

In a summary of the month there were some fantastic displays of handling skills

AGILITY and JUMPERS COURSES.

We need 11 courses for the next series of LINK.

Three of these will be Jumpers courses. Courses can best be supplied as Course designer files, however plans drawn to scale may also be accepted. Please send to the Editor/Secretary.

Southern 'arf report By Marie McDonald

Southland Dog Training Club Ribbon Trial 30 March 2008

Southland put on yet another sunny day for the ribbon trial. Yours truly judged the maiden. Paul and Sallie Remon were our judges and included both a Starters Jumpers and Open Jumpers course for competitors to try their skills on. Everyone seemed to enjoy another course to run. Thanks to Paul and Sallie for their skills, humour and work.

There were many successful Southlanders on the day. Helen Brunner and Cruz sped around the Maiden course in ~17sec which was really cool to watch. Good on you Helen. Unfortunately I can not give a full list of placings. Well done to everyone for a good day.

Picture: Helen and Cruz.

Special Mention

Anne Bevin continues to stand out from the crowd with her successes with Pete and Kay. Congratulations to Anne who now has two Grand Champions Pete and Kay. Really well done!

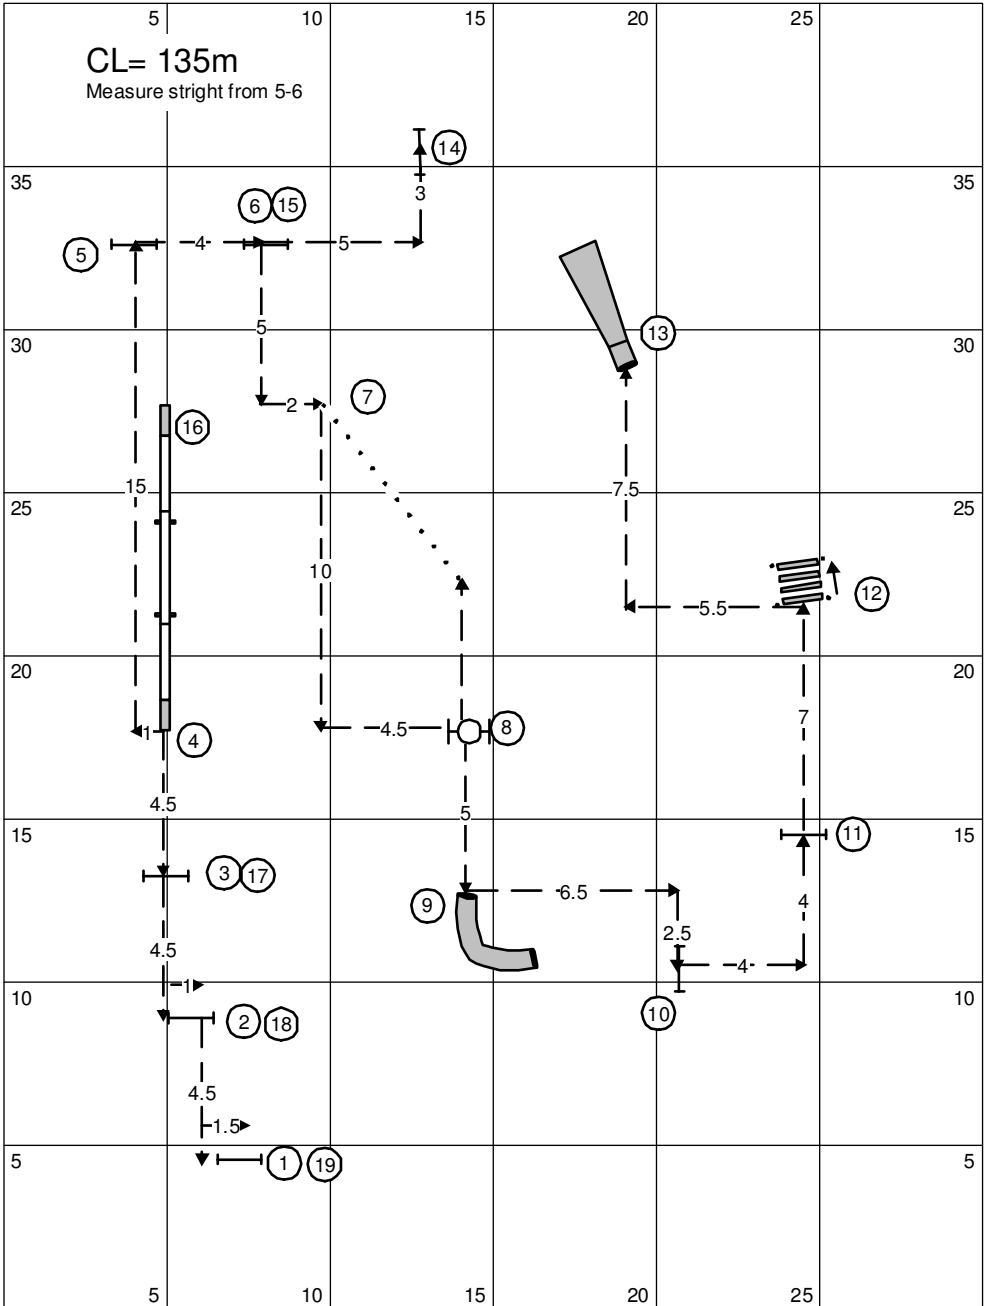

Well, that's about it for this month. We are looking forward to a day of games on ANZAC day in Dunedin. This may well be my last report so I just want to say thanks for the opportunity and wish you all well for the future in your canine pursuits.

Cheers, Marie, Meg and Ralph

FLYGILITY by Allan Rohde

Hesitant Releases (training from the web...)

Sometimes a dog hesitates on the release, usually by pausing and looking back at the handler or even spinning around. Sometimes this is due to separation anxiety, wanting to chase the returning dog, or wanting the reward before going out and back. There are several possible causes for this and things recommended to try and solve it:

- If the handler talks while releasing the dog, it's attention is focused on the handler. Try having the handler remain quiet and get the dog to focus on the box loader.
- The handler pushes the dog to get it to go - have the handler remove their hands and limit hand motion that might distract the dog.
- Make sure the handler keeps "rewards" out of site until the dog has returned. You may need another person to hold onto the "reward" until the dog is released.
- Have someone else hold the dog and position the handler 10 ft from the box, have the handler call the dog and let it do the box, when the dog has the ball, handler and dog return at speed.
- Get the handler to throw the incentive to the box loader who picks it up and pretends to turn it into a ball, which is then loaded into the box. When the dog gets the ball and returns over the line, the handler (magically) produces another incentive.
- If you think a problem may develop but you decide to try this, spend a lot of time transferring the dogs attention from the toy to the ball both on and off the practice area.
Off the training field, play games with the dog with a 3 to 1 ratio of toy and then ball on rope. On the training field, focus the dog on the box by throwing the toy to the box loader who would then spend up to one minute bouncing a ball on the box, throwing it in the air, and catching it and at the same time calling the dog, by the time the dog is released the dog should have forgotten the fact that the toy is at the box and be tuned into the ball.
- The handler should hold the dog and when it is released start running towards the box, the dog will be unlikely to hang around spinning on it's own.

There is also the possibility that a dog will spin on the line because they are chasing the returning dog. Try running the dog first and throwing a ball to the loader to focus the dog. Loud box loaders can sometimes help focus dogs.

SIGNATURE GEAR ELECTRONIC TIMING

New Zealanders are renowned for embracing new technology and in the Agility Ring it is certainly no different.

Since the arrival of the first machine in early 2004 there has been a slow but steady stream culminating in a grand total exceeding 25 sets in New Zealand with the Australians lagging well behind with 10 sets so far.

The bulk of units sold in New Zealand were funded through various charities, predominately one of numerous "Pub Charities" with the funds being generated by "Pokies".

Despite recent news coverage about the potential restriction to the number of gaming outlets apparently there is a plentiful supply of funding dependent only on the quality of the application.

If your club is interested in making an application for funding I am happy to make suggestions based around what we know has been successful in the past.
